Part III: Information Obtained:

Summary:

[REDACTED]

- Detainee discussed Khaldun al-Afiri.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Detainee's first meeting with Abu Qaswarah took place approximately seven to 10 days after Eid al-Fitr. [REDACTED]

The day prior to the meeting with Abu Qaswarah, Anmar, who had recently returned from a meeting with Abu Qaswarah, gave Detainee Abu Arab's number and told Detainee to call Abu 'Arab. Detainee saved the number in Detainee's cell phone under the name Abu Arab. Detainee called Abu Arab the following morning at 0800 and agreed to meet with Abu Arab in half an hour at the Suq al-Ma'ash. Detainee met Abu Arab at the Suq around 0900 and left Mosul to travel to Abu Qaswarah's around 1000.

The second occasion Detainee traveled to Jazirah to meet with Abu Qaswarah was approximately one month prior to Detainee's capture. Abu Arab called Detainee in the morning and told Detainee to meet Abu Arab in the Suq al-Ma'ash in the morning but Detainee does not recall the exact time. Detainee and Abu Arab left Mosul between 1000 and noon.

[REDACTED]

The last village Detainee recalls passing on the way to Abu Qaswarah's camp was comprised of approximately 50 houses. Detainee could see the village from the Strategic Pipeline. Detainee and Abu Arab crossed the pipeline after less than an hour of travel. Abu Arab drove another hour to a hill for a meeting with 'Abbas. [REDACTED]

Detainee did not identify the names Abu Khawlah and Ubaydah al-Afiri. Khaldun Al-Afiri is the brother of Haydar al-Afiri. Detainee has seen Khaldun on several occasions at Haydar al-Afiri's residence [REDACTED]. The last time Detainee saw Khaldun was over one month prior to Detainee's capture. Khaldun had a hand injury and had just returned from Syria. Detainee does not know what happened to Khaldun's hand. Detainee exchanged greetings and left. Khaldun is not involved in ISI activity. Detainee does not know what Khaldun does for a living or where Khaldun currently lives.

Detainee did not identify photographs of the following individuals:

- Khalid Subhi Amin 'Ali ((al-Anizi)), AKA Abu Walid ([REDACTED])
- Jasim Muhammad Hamid ((al-Rashidi)) AKA Abu Muhammad, AKA Sufyan [REDACTED]
