(Appendix)

The house. He took our clothes, mattresses, and heater outside the house and into the garage. Then he moved furniture from the house in front of us to the inside of the house. Note that he came to us twice and said, "You must evacuate the house." I told him, "The case of the house has not yet been resolved." He refused this answer and used the house for three days without right.

And may God reward you the best.
